CSA Report

Mrs. Veras made a comment about how excited she is to see the staff and students partaking in the holiday events and programs in the school.

Collected 78 toys for donating and thanked staff and students for taking their time to help make this special.

Thank the Naomi families for putting the lights up every year for the school.

Thanks Mayor Ramos, the PTO, the book club for showing up and making it a special event, and exciting turnout.

First round of instructional coasting will start next week, very excited to start an expert coming in to help strengthen intervention with students and assisting our staff along.
