Parent & Child Fishing Derby

Put your fishing skills to the test with our annual parent-child fishing derby. This is a friendly fishing competition with prizes for our younger friends of fishing. This is a catch and release event. The competition will be for the longest caught fish, shortest caught fish, and most overall fish caught. Be sure to arrive on time, to maximize your fishing time. Also, keep in mind this is a friendly competition, please follow the honor code! Have a fun and memorable family fishing experience, no matter the size of the catch.

Bring your own fishing equipment (including a ruler) and we will provide the boat. Limited amount of boats available on a first come, first served basis.

For families young and old.

This is not a school-sponsored event.

September 29th, 2019 1:30-4:30pm

1:30pm Registration opens

2:00pm Fishing contest begins!

SUPER FRIENDS

Join us for a great evening of making friends and having fun. This program is designed for people with special needs and their families – with camp activities, games, adventures and experiences that will create amazing memories for everyone. Volunteers and Fairview Lake staff will lead our monthly adventures!

Each month, we'll try new activities together – rock climbing, archery, row boating and candle making are just this years programs.

Youth and teens will join us on the second Friday of each month. Registration is required, and the program is 100% free! Registration can be found here: www.fairviewlakeymca.org/superfriends

Volunteers interested in helping with the program should register through the Pass It Along portal at www.passitalong.org.

This is not a school-sponsored event.

Youth and Teens: 6-8pm

- Sept 13th – Archery
- Oct 11th – New Games
- Nov 8th – Climbing Wall
- Dec 13th – Candle Making
